"Faking Love" is a song written by Matraca Berg and Bobby Braddock, and recorded by American country music artists T.G. Sheppard and Karen Brooks. It was released in October of as the second single from the album Perfect curlyshue.com: Country.

Faking the Love by Sofia Grey (a new author for me) was a short (3 chapters), easy read. And sexy. Well written. Characters were great. Lucy meets Jez, a hot musician type guy on an international flight and against her better judgement, flirts with him/5(11).

Faking Love Lyrics: Sundown's coming / It's always the same / I need love Some miracle love / Bodies start sweating I'm right on the game / You're mak' mak' mak' mak' / You're.

Lyrics to 'Faking Love' by T.G. Sheppard. You turn down the covers / I'll turn down the lights / As we turn to each other / There's no turning back tonight / I.
