(The book is discussed in its entirety. It might be considered a 'spoiler' by some, but Raj tells us in the forward where he is heading.) Well, it's an earnest book but a bumpy ride to transport us to the final destination, a destination I can whole-heartedly applaud – empathy, tolerance and opening our eyes to who and what is behind terrorism in the world/5(1). Feb 01, · What would you do if your family is murdered in front of your eyes? What would you do if the women of your family are gang-raped in front of your eyes? What would you do if you are a helpless victim of a so-called religious riot? Would you wait for the /5(8). A true story of an Ex-Terrorist, trained in Pakistan by an off-shoot group of 'Al - Qaeda', who gave up arms almost seven years ago with startling revelations about the '9/11 Conspiracy', 'Al - Qaeda Conspiracy' and the 'Godhra Conspiracy'.
