Nick Fury, Agent of SHIELD» Nick Fury, Agent of SHIELD #36 - The Snake Who Came In From The Cold released by Marvel on June Summary Short summary describing this issue. Fury cites the graduation massacre from Nick Fury Agent of SHIELD #26 as evidence that he doesn't deserve to be director of SHIELD any more. When Constrictor and Cage first start fighting, Constrictor notes that when they last fought, in Power Man & Iron Fist #84, Cage had a partner. He does the same here with good old Nick Fury. This is the real Nick -- unshaven, tougher than nails, talking through clenched teeth that are gripping a cheap cigar. We also have the real SHIELD, complete with helicarrier, Dum Dum Dugan, and Val (way too little of her). Reviews: Issue(s): Nick Fury Agent of SHIELD #3, Nick Fury Agent of SHIELD #4, Nick Fury Agent of SHIELD #5, Nick Fury Agent of SHIELD #6 Cover Date: Nov-Dec 89 Title: This issue opens with Nick Fury trying unsuccessfully to get information from some German skinheads, so it's not a direct continuation of the previous issue.
